

Thursday, 28th February Playoff

The playoff games were affected by the victory of Russia over Canada in the men's competition. Canada ladies instead walked quite easily through to the final.

Women:

Croatia – Canada 5:10

Russia – Hungary 11:6

Men:

Switzerland – Japan 7:4

Russia – Canada 7:5

Thursday, 28th February Semifinals

There was a very tight match between Russia and Croatia. In the end, the Russian ladies won and were qualified for the final. The men's match wasn't exciting at all, Canada was too strong for the Swiss team and won in a convincing way.

Women: Croatia – Russia 4:6

Men: Canada – Switzerland 13:1

Friday, 1st March Bronzemedal Games

Both bronzemedal matches were very exciting. The Croatian ladies were four stones ahead in halftime. But Hungary didn't give up and equalises in the 9th end! But Croatia won the last end with one stone and got the bronze medal!

In the men's game between Japan and Switzerland, there was a tie in halftime. But then the Swiss team got one stone in each following end and won the bronze medal!

Women: Croatia - Hungary 9:8

Men: Switzerland - Japan 6:3